

CBA South Midlands Autumn Conference and AGM
Life in a time of Climate Change: Recent work on Palaeolithic and Mesolithic sites in Buckinghamshire and beyond

Image of Marsworth in the Pleistocene by kind permission of Buckinghamshire Archaeological Society

Saturday 19th November 2011
10.30am – 4.00 pm

Methodist Church Hall, Buckingham Street, Aylesbury, Buckinghamshire, HP20 2NQ (map overleaf)

Speakers include:

Mike Farley - Discovering Ice Age Buckinghamshire

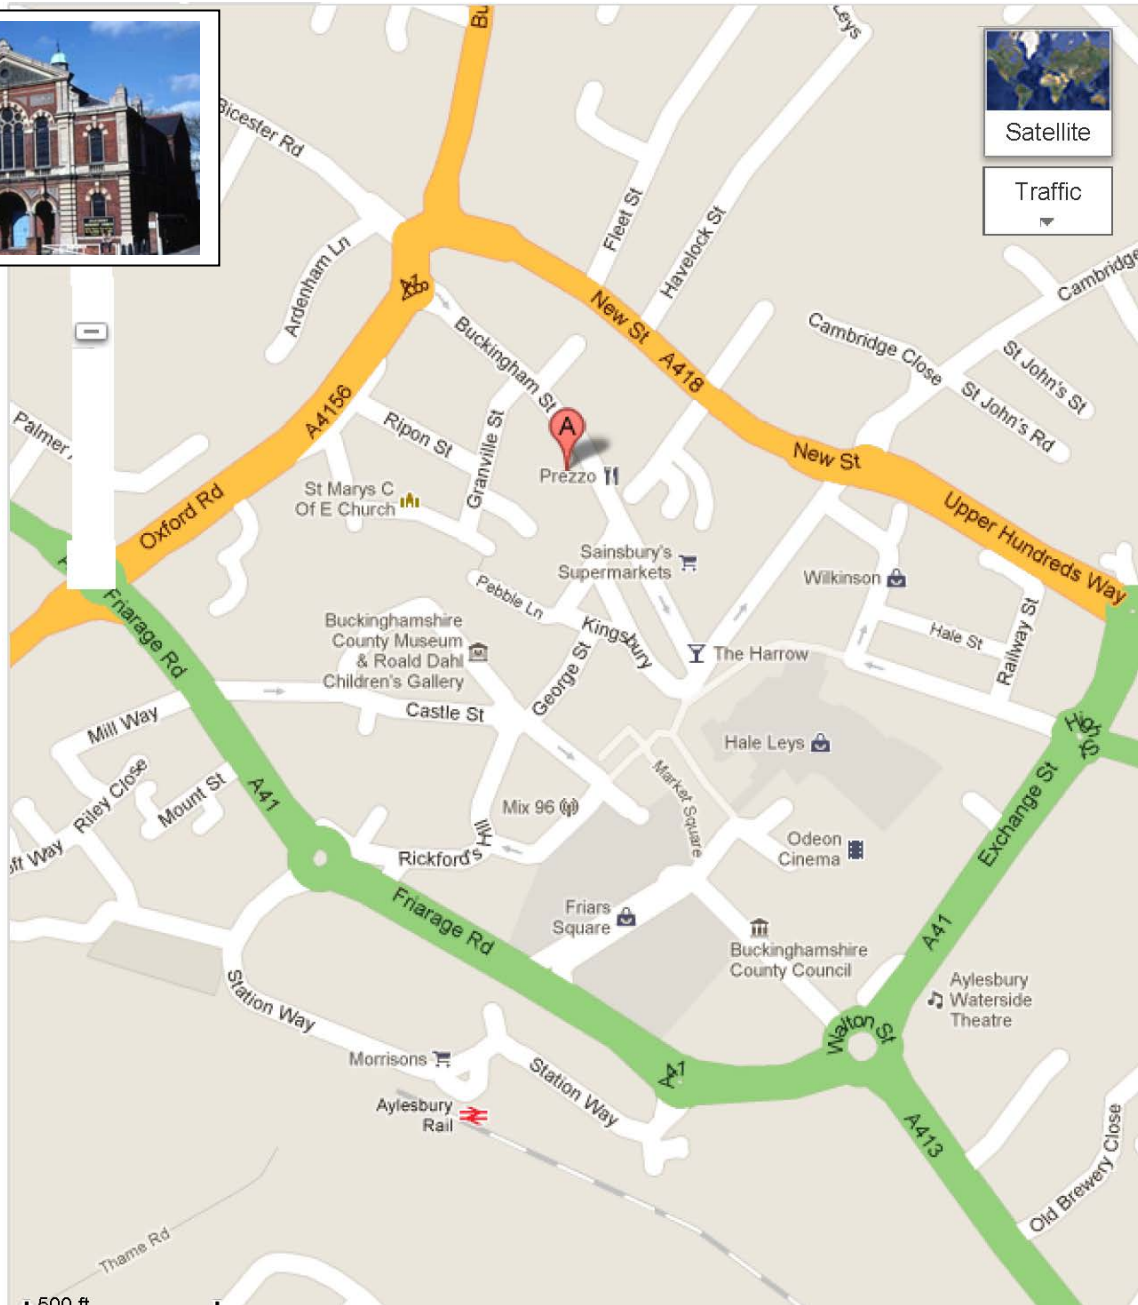

James Rackham on Three Ways Wharf in Uxbridge

Craig Halsey on the Museum of London's excavations at the Sanderson site in Denham

Andy Manning on Wessex Archaeology's excavations at Denham

Conference tickets: £10 on the door.

The AGM will be held at 12.00 and is free to members.

Detailed map showing the Methodist Church Hall. There are pay and display surface car parks near to the hall on Buckingham Street, New Street, Exchange Street and Whitehill Street and multi-storey car parks on Station Way, Railway Street and Upper Hundreds Way.

There are many pubs, restaurants, cafes, sandwich bars and shops in Aylesbury serving lunches or sandwiches.